

Members of the Avis Preferred Service Program and/or Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program May Claim Settlement Benefits.

This Class Action Settlement May Affect Your Rights

A Court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

- This notice concerns class-action lawsuits filed in New Jersey federal court against Avis and Budget. In these lawsuits, Avis Preferred and Budget Rapid Rez members are seeking reimbursement for charges they paid Avis and Budget for frequent-flyer miles they obtained from Avis and Budget when they rented cars. Avis and Budget call these charges their frequent traveler program surcharge (or “FTP Surcharges”). Although these lawsuits are being settled, Avis and Budget dispute that they wrongly charged customers FTP Surcharges.
- A settlement is a compromise of the parties’ respective positions. Depending on how often you paid FTP Surcharges, these settlements give you a choice between cash or a discount on one or more future rentals. Simply check the appropriate box on the attached claim form and file your claim electronically or by mailing it to Avis Budget Surcharge Settlement, c/o Garden City Group, LLC, P.O. Box 10263, Dublin, Ohio 43017.
- In particular, if between July 14, 2005, and June 14, 2012, you were an Avis Preferred Service Program member and rented a vehicle in the United States through www.avis.com, you likely paid an FTP Surcharge for receiving frequent-flyer miles from Avis’s travel partners. If this happened to you, you are eligible to make a claim for the relief described here.
- And if between November 27, 2006, and February 17, 2013, you were a Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program member and rented a vehicle in the United States through www.budget.com, you likely paid an FTP Surcharge for receiving frequent-flyer miles from Budget’s travel partners. If this happened to you, you are eligible to make a claim for the relief described here.
- You must file your claim by July 5, 2016, which is the “Claims Bar Date.” If someone appeals this settlement, payment of your claim may be delayed. The process for filing a claim is explained at Question 11.
- Read this notice carefully because your legal rights will be affected whether you act or don’t act.

YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OPTIONS IN THIS SETTLEMENT:

SUBMIT THE ATTACHED CLAIM FORM (ALSO AVAILABLE AT WWW.AVISBUDGETSURCHARGESETTLEMENT.COM)	This is the way to get your settlement benefits.
DO NOTHING	Get no settlement benefits. But you will be part of the group of renters who will give up their right to pursue any claims arising from Avis and Budget charging FTP Surcharges.
OPT OUT	Write to attorneys for plaintiffs, Avis and Budget (through the claims administrator) if you do not want to be included in the settlement. You have a right to opt out of the settlement only if you are (1) a member of the Avis Preferred Service Program who paid an FTP Surcharge from July 14, 2005 to June 14, 2012, or (2) you are a member of the Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program who paid an FTP Surcharge from November 27, 2006 to February 17, 2013, and (3) you have not objected to the settlement.
OBJECT	Write to the Court and to the lawyers for plaintiffs, Avis, and Budget if you do not like the settlement. As set forth in the answers to questions 22 through 24 below, you may attend a hearing on the fairness of the settlement, if you give adequate notice of your objection. You have a right to object to the settlement only if you are (1) a member of the Avis Preferred Service Program who paid an FTP Surcharge from July 14, 2005 to June 14, 2012, or (2) you are a member of the Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program who paid an FTP Surcharge from November 27, 2006 to February 17, 2013, and (3) you have not opted out of the settlement.

These rights and options – and the deadlines by which to exercise them – are explained in this notice.

The Court that is supervising these cases has preliminarily approved the settlement but still has to decide whether to grant “final approval,” which the Court will decide after considering opt-outs and objections. The final approval hearing will occur on May 25, 2016. Settlement benefits will be distributed only after final approval and the resolution of any class members’ appeals of the Court’s final approval order. Please be patient.

BASIC INFORMATION

1. WHY WAS THIS NOTICE ISSUED?

The Court issued this notice because you have a right to know about a proposed settlement of two class-action lawsuits that the Court has preliminarily approved. You also are entitled to know how to make a claim for benefits of the settlement and all of your options. If the Court grants final approval and any appeals from this final approval are resolved (this date will be referred to as “the Settlement Effective Date”), valuable benefits will be distributed to you if you qualify and you made a claim by the Claims Bar Date.

2. WHAT ARE THESE LAWSUITS ABOUT?

The people who filed the class actions, Edward Schwartz and Daniel and Stephanie Klein, are the “plaintiffs” and Avis and Budget are the “defendants.” Two lawsuits filed in New Jersey federal court, Schwartz v. Avis Rent A Car Sys., LLC, 11 Civ. 4032 (D.N.J.), and Klein v. Budget Rent A Car Sys., Inc., 12 Civ. 7300 (D.N.J.), claim that Avis and Budget improperly charged FTP Surcharges to members of the Avis Preferred Service Program and the Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program in connection with online rental vehicle reservations where renters received frequent-flyer miles from Avis and Budget travel partners.

Plaintiffs assert legal claims on behalf of themselves and all members of the two “Settlement Classes”:

Avis Settlement Class

All members of the Avis Preferred Service Program who rented a vehicle in the United States through www.avis.com, and paid an FTP Surcharge for receiving frequent-flyer miles from any of Avis’s travel partners at any time between July 14, 2005 and June 14, 2012, and who did not properly or timely exercise their rights to opt out of the settlement.

Budget Settlement Class

All members of the Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program who rented a vehicle in the United States through www.budget.com, and paid an FTP Surcharge for receiving frequent-flyer miles from any of Budget’s travel partners at any time between November 27, 2006 and February 17, 2013, and who did not properly or timely exercise their rights to opt out of the settlement.

The settled claims include claims that Avis and Budget each violated the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act, and breached their vehicle rental agreements with those of their customers who were charged an FTP Surcharge. Plaintiffs seek injunctive relief (meaning, a Court order banning certain of Avis’s and Budget’s practices), declaratory relief (meaning, a Court order that determines the propriety of certain of Avis’s and Budget’s practices), compensatory damages (meaning, cash or discounts to Settlement Class Members), punitive damages (meaning, money meant to punish Avis and Budget), and attorneys’ fees and costs. Avis and Budget deny Plaintiffs’ claims and charges, as well as any wrongdoing in the imposition of FTP Surcharges.

In settling these cases, Avis and Budget have agreed to provide discounts on future vehicle rentals or cash payments to qualifying members of the Avis Preferred Service Program and the Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program who paid these FTP Surcharges. More information can be found at www.AvisBudgetSurchargeSettlement.com, by contacting Plaintiffs’ Lead Counsel, Karon LLC at 700 West St. Clair Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio 44113, dkaron@karonllc.com, or Lite DePalma Greenberg, LLC at 570 Broad Street, Suite 1201, Newark, New Jersey 07102, avisbudgetsettlement@litedepalma.com, or by calling 1-866-584-6178.

3. WHY ARE THESE CASES CLASS ACTIONS?

In a class action, one or more person(s) called “Class Representatives” sue on behalf of those with similar claims. All of these people together are called a “Class,” and individually, are called “Class Members.” The Court appointed plaintiffs, Edward Schwartz (for Avis) and Daniel and Stephanie Klein (for Budget), as Class Representatives for purposes of this settlement. This settlement resolves all of the factual and legal issues for all of the Class Members, except for those who specifically and timely ask to be excluded from the Class (“opt out”).

4. WHY IS THERE A SETTLEMENT?

The Court did not decide in favor of either plaintiffs or Avis and Budget. Instead, both sides agreed to a settlement. That way, they avoid the uncertainty and cost of a trial, and those included in the Settlement Classes and others will get an opportunity to claim future rental discounts or a cash payment. The Class Representatives and the attorneys appointed by the Court to represent the Class believe that the settlement is in the best interests of all Settlement Class Members because the settlement makes available significant cash and non-cash benefits to Settlement Class Members and avoids the risk that the Class might ultimately lose this case and receive nothing at all.

WHO IS INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

5. HOW DO I KNOW IF I AM PART OF THE SETTLEMENT?

You are entitled to settlement benefits if you were a member of the Avis Preferred Service Program, rented a vehicle in the United States through www.avis.com between July 14, 2005 and June 14, 2012, and paid an FTP Surcharge for receiving frequent-flyer miles from any of Avis’s travel partners.

You are also entitled to settlement benefits if you were a member of the Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program, rented a vehicle in the United States through www.budget.com between November 27, 2006 and February 17, 2013, and paid an FTP Surcharge for receiving frequent-flyer miles from any of Budget’s travel partners. These members will be able to receive one or more discounts on future vehicle rentals from Avis or Budget through www.avis.com and www.budget.com, or a cash payment.

Non-members of the above Programs, members who did not make their reservations through www.avis.com or www.budget.com, and members who did not pay FTP Surcharges in connection with earning frequent-flyer miles within the time periods set forth in the preceding paragraph are not included in this settlement and will not receive settlement benefits.

6. ARE THERE EXCEPTIONS TO BEING INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

Avis and Budget, and their officers, directors, employees, and attorneys are not included in the Settlement Classes. Also excluded are the presiding judge, the Honorable Jose L. Linares, or any members of his family and his staff.

7. WHAT IF I AM NOT SURE WHETHER I AM INCLUDED IN THE SETTLEMENT?

If you are not sure whether you are included in the Settlement Class, you may visit www.AvisBudgetSurchargeSettlement.com, for more information. You can contact The Garden City Group, LLC at 1-866-584-6178 or by mail at: Avis Budget Surcharge Settlement, c/o Garden City Group, LLC, P.O. Box 10263, Dublin, OH 43017-5763 or by email at Info@AvisBudgetSurchargeSettlement.com. You may also contact Class Counsel, Karon LLC at (216) 622-1851 or dkaron@karonllc.com, or Lite DePalma Greenberg, LLC at (973) 623-3000 or avisbudgetsettlement@litedepalma.com.

8. CAN I BE A MEMBER OF BOTH THE AVIS SETTLEMENT CLASS AND THE BUDGET SETTLEMENT CLASS?

Yes. And you can use the claim form described in Answer 11 to apply for benefits from Avis and Budget.

THE SETTLEMENT BENEFITS: WHAT YOU CAN GET

9. WHAT DOES THE AVIS SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

Qualifying members of the Avis Preferred Service Program will be eligible to receive either (a) a 10% discount off of the standard Avis RAC rate (which is the average price per day paid by a customer who is not an Avis employee for daily, weekly and weekend rentals) for future vehicle rentals made through www.avis.com that they can use one or more times or (b) a cash payment. You must choose cash or a discount; you can't get both.

The number of times you may use the 10% discount and the size of the cash payment depend on the amount of money that you spent on FTP Surcharge payments between July 14, 2005 and June 14, 2012. These details appear in the following chart.

TOTAL FTP SURCHARGES PAID BY AVIS SETTLEMENT CLASS MEMBER	NUMBER OF RENTAL DAYS FOR WHICH 10% DISCOUNT CAN BE USED	AMOUNT OF CASH OPTION
$0 to $5	1	$1.35
$5.01 to $10	2	$5.00
$10.01 to $20	3	$9.00
$20.01 to $30	5	$13.00
$30.01 to $40	7	$17.00
$40.01 to $50	10	$21.00
$50.01 to $100	13	$25.00
$100.01 to $200	25	$42.00

$300.01 to $400	65	$91.00
$400.01 and above	100	$129.00

The discounts will be redeemable only through a special discount code that Avis will provide to you, which you will need to enter into an appropriate field during the online rental reservation process at www.avis.com. The discounts cannot be used in combination with any other discount code that you may have received in the past from Avis. The discounts will expire one year after your receipt of the special discount code from Avis, at which time you will no longer be able to use that discount code.

10. WHAT DOES THE BUDGET SETTLEMENT PROVIDE?

Qualifying members of the Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program will be eligible to receive either (a) a 10% discount off of the standard Budget RAC rate (which is the average price per day paid by a customer who is not a Budget employee for daily, weekly and weekend rentals) for future vehicle rentals made through www.budget.com that they can use one or more times or (b) a cash payment. You must choose cash or a discount; you can't get both.

The number of times you may use the 10% discount and the size of the cash payment depend on the amount of money that you spent on FTP Surcharge payments between November 27, 2006 and February 17, 2013. These details appear in the following chart.

TOTAL FTP SURCHARGES PAID BY BUDGET SETTLEMENT CLASS MEMBER	NUMBER OF RENTAL DAYS FOR WHICH 10% DISCOUNT CAN BE USED	AMOUNT OF CASH OPTION
$0 to $5	1	$1.35

$300.01 to $400	65	$91.00
$400.01 and above	100	$129.00

The discounts will be redeemable only through a special discount code that Budget will provide to you, which you will need to enter into an appropriate field during the online rental reservation process at www.budget.com. The discounts cannot be used in combination with any other discount code that you may have received in the past from Budget. The discounts will expire one year after your receipt of the special discount code from Budget, at which time you will no longer be able to use that discount code.

HOW TO GET BENEFITS: SUBMITTING A CLAIM FORM

11. HOW CAN I GET MY RENTAL DISCOUNT OR CASH PAYMENT?

You must submit a claim form to receive either of these settlement benefits. A claim form is attached to this notice, and you can download extra copies from www.AvisBudgetSurchargeSettlement.com. You do not need to attach any receipts to this form or remember or prove exactly how much money you have paid in FTP Surcharges, since Avis and Budget have this information. If you are a member of both the Avis and Budget Settlement Classes, you can use the same claim form to seek benefits from Avis and Budget.

Garden City Group, LLC, the claims administrator for the settlement, will then confirm whether you are eligible for benefits based on the information contained on your claim form. You must make your claim by July 5, 2016.

You cannot select both a 10% rental discount and a cash award. If you do, Garden City Group will return the claim form to you as void, and you will have to re-submit it, still by July 5, 2016, with a single option selected. If this return occurs too close to July 5, 2016 for you to achieve this, you will have an extra ten days in which to do so. If you are a member of the Avis and Budget Settlement Classes, you can choose cash from one and a discount from the other.

If by the Claims Bar Date you do not participate in the claims process, or if you do not submit a claim form that selects a single form of relief from Avis and a single form of relief from Budget, you will not receive any settlement benefits.

12. WHEN WILL I GET MY DISCOUNT CODE OR CASH PAYMENT?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing on May 25, 2016. At that time, the Court will decide whether to approve the settlement. If the Court approves the settlement, there may be appeals. It is always uncertain whether the appeals can be resolved and resolving them can take time. Discount codes will be issued and cash payments will be made only after the Court grants final approval of the settlement and any appeals are resolved. Please be patient.

If you change your e-mail or postal address before settlement benefits are issued, you should update your information online at www.AvisBudgetSurchargeSettlement.com or by sending a letter to Garden City Group to ensure that you receive your discount code or cash payment. Remember, discount codes and cash payments will be sent to the e-mail and postal addresses that Garden City Group has on file, so it is important that you update these addresses if they change before the settlement benefits are distributed.

13. WHAT OTHER RELIEF ARE AVIS AND BUDGET PROVIDING TO THE SETTLEMENT CLASSES?

Over the years since these lawsuits were filed, Avis and Budget have made improvements to the online rental reservation process on www.avis.com and www.budget.com, so that the imposition of the FTP Surcharge is more clearly disclosed to their customers, and so their customers can better see how much the FTP Surcharge will likely add to their final rental bills. Avis and Budget have agreed to keep the following features of the online rental reservation process on www.avis.com and www.budget.com in place for at least five years from the Settlement Effective Date:

- Including the FTP Surcharge in a “Running Total” column that appears throughout the online rental reservation process, including on the confirmation page, and in the confirmation e-mail, through a line item entitled “Frequent Travel Program.”
- Including a “Help” link to a specific web page that provides detailed information regarding the FTP Surcharge. This link will appear on the screen during the online rental-reservation process where you enter information regarding your membership in any frequent-travel programs as to which an FTP Surcharge could be imposed, and your travel preferences. The Help link will also appear on the screen where you enter your airline information.
- Including the following language on the pages of the online rental-reservation process where Settlement Class Members enter information regarding their membership in any participating frequent-travel programs and their travel preferences, as well as on the page of the online rental reservation process where Settlement Class Members enter their airline information: “Note: A Frequent Traveler Program Surcharge or Excise Tax may be applied and will be assessed in connection with miles earned pursuant to this reservation. Please click the ‘Help’ link for more details.”
- Reference to the FTP Surcharge will also continue to be included in Terms and Conditions that appear on the confirmation page after renters completed their online reservations.

14. WHAT RIGHTS AM I GIVING UP AGAINST AVIS AND BUDGET TO GET A DISCOUNT CODE OR CASH PAYMENT AND TO STAY IN ONE OR BOTH OF THE CLASSES?

If you are a Settlement Class Member when the settlement becomes final—even if you don’t claim one of the alternative benefits described in Answers 9 and 10—you will be releasing Avis and Budget and their officers, directors, employees, and related corporate entities, from any liability or claims associated with or relating to the imposition of FTP Surcharges during rental transactions. The specific terms of the release are set forth in the parties’ Settlement Agreement, which you can review at www.AvisBudgetSurchargeSettlement.com.

THE LAWYERS REPRESENTING PLAINTIFFS

15. DO I HAVE A LAWYER IN THIS CASE?

Yes. Karon LLC, Lite DePalma Greenberg, LLC, and other attorneys represent you and the other Settlement Class Members. The Court has appointed Karon LLC and Lite DePalma Greenberg, LLC as Plaintiffs’ Lead Counsel for these lawsuits. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

16. HOW WILL THE LAWYERS BE PAID?

Plaintiffs’ Counsel will ask the Court for attorneys’ fees and expenses. Avis and Budget have agreed not to oppose Plaintiffs’ Counsel’s request for these fees and expenses up to $3,050,000 for both cases. The Court may or may not approve that request. Importantly, none of these fees or expenses will come out of the cash or discounts to be received by Settlement Class Members. To earn these fees and expenses, Plaintiffs' counsel spent almost five years of time and effort. During those years, they didn't get paid. They also faced the risk that they might never get paid for their efforts. Plaintiffs' counsel also spent thousands of dollars of their own money pursuing these cases, and they faced the risk that those expenses might never be reimbursed.

Avis and Budget are paying the costs of this and other notice to the Settlement Classes; they are also paying to administer this settlement. These notice and administrative amounts will not come out of the funds for benefits to Settlement Class Members. Finally, no Settlement Class Member will pay anything.

EXCLUDING YOURSELF FROM THE SETTLEMENT

17. IF I WOULD PREFER NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN THE SETTLEMENT, WHAT DO I DO?

You may exclude yourself from (or "opt out" of) the settlement if you (a) were a member of the Avis Preferred Service Program, rented a vehicle in the United States through www.avis.com, and paid an FTP Surcharge for receiving frequent-flyer miles from any of Avis's travel partners at any time between July 14, 2005 and June 14, 2012, or (b) were a member of the Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program, rented a vehicle in the United States through www.budget.com, and paid an FTP Surcharge for receiving frequent-flyer miles from any of Budget's travel partners at any time between November 27, 2006 and February 17, 2013. To opt out, you must personally sign and mail a request for exclusion to the following address:

Avis Budget Surcharge Settlement
c/o Garden City Group, LLC
P.O. Box 10263
Dublin, Ohio 43017

You must personally sign the exclusion request and identify whether you are a member of the Avis Settlement Class, the Budget Settlement Class, or both Settlement Classes. You must also clearly state that you wish to be excluded from the Settlement Class(es). Your request must include your name, address, telephone number, and, if you are represented by your own separate counsel, you must also provide that attorney's name, address, and telephone number.

You must mail your exclusion request to Garden City Group, and it must be postmarked no later than April 6, 2016, or it will not be accepted. If you do not specifically request to be excluded by following these directions, you will automatically be a member of the Settlement Classes.

18. IF I EXCLUDE MYSELF, WILL I STILL GET A DISCOUNT CODE OR CASH PAYMENT FROM THIS SETTLEMENT?

If you opt out of the Settlement Classes, you will not be eligible for any settlement benefits, and will waive all rights to object to the settlement. Similarly, if you file an objection to the settlement with the Court (see Question 20 below), you will not be able to exclude yourself from the Settlement Classes.

19. IF I DON'T EXCLUDE MYSELF, CAN I SUE AVIS OR BUDGET FOR THE SAME CLAIMS LATER?

If the proposed settlement is approved and you are a Settlement Class Member who does not properly and timely exclude yourself from the Settlement Class, all claims that you may have now or in the future against Avis or Budget with respect to the imposition of FTP Surcharges on vehicle rentals will be waived and released, and you will be prohibited from bringing any such claims in the future on your own behalf, as provided in the parties' Settlement Agreement.

OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT

20. HOW DO I TELL THE COURT THAT I LIKE OR DON'T LIKE THE SETTLEMENT?

If you are a Settlement Class Member, you can express approval of or objection to the settlement. You also can give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it. The Court will consider your views. To object, you must send a letter to the Court saying that you object to the terms of the settlement in Schwartz v. Avis Rent A Car Sys., LLC, 11 Civ. 4032 (D.N.J.), and Klein v. Budget Rent A Car Sys., Inc., 12 Civ. 7300 (D.N.J.). You must include your name, street address, and e-mail address. You must personally sign your letter and explain the reasons you object to the settlement. If you are represented by your own separate counsel, that attorney will also need to file his or her appearance with the Court by no later than May 5, 2016.

Your objection must identify whether you are a member of the Avis Settlement Class, the Budget Settlement Class, or both Settlement Classes, and it must include your Avis Preferred Service Program and Budget Rapid Rez with Fastbreak Program membership numbers. You must also enclose copies of any materials that you plan to submit to the Court. You must also clearly state in detail the legal and factual grounds for your objection.

You must file your objection with the Clerk of the Court at CLERK OF THE COURT, United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, Martin Luther King Building & U.S. Courthouse, 50 Walnut Street, Newark, New Jersey 07101, by no later than April 6, 2016. Please include the phrase "Schwartz v. Avis Rent A Car Sys., LLC, 11 Civ. 4032 and Klein v. Budget Rent A Car Sys., Inc., 12 Civ. 7300" below the Court's address on the envelope containing your objection.

You must also deliver the objection to Plaintiffs' counsel and Avis's and Budget's counsel at the following addresses, so that it is received by no later than April 6, 2016.

COUNSEL FOR AVIS AND BUDGET:

21. WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN OBJECTING TO THE SETTLEMENT AND EXCLUDING ME FROM IT?

Objecting is simply telling the Court that you don't like something about the settlement. You can object only if you stay in the Settlement Classes (meaning you do not exclude yourself). If you exclude yourself, you cannot object because the case no longer affects you. Likewise, if you file an objection to the settlement with the Court, you cannot exclude yourself from the Settlement Classes.

THE COURT'S FAIRNESS HEARING

22. WHEN AND WHERE WILL THE COURT DECIDE WHETHER TO APPROVE THE SETTLEMENT?

The Court will hold a Final Approval Hearing before the Honorable Jose L. Linares at 10:00 a.m. on May 25, 2016, in Courtroom 5D of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, Martin Luther King Building & U.S. Courthouse, 50 Walnut Street, Newark, New Jersey. At this hearing, the Court will consider whether the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate. The Court will consider any objections. The Court also will decide how much to pay Plaintiffs' Counsel. At or after the hearing, the Court will decide whether to grant final approval of the settlement. We do not know how long these decisions will take.

23. DO I HAVE TO COME TO THE HEARING?

No. Plaintiffs' Counsel will answer any questions that Judge Linares may have. However, you are welcome to come at your own expense. You also may pay your own lawyer to attend the Final Approval Hearing on your behalf. If you send an objection, you don't have to come to Court to discuss it. As long as your written objection is received before the deadline and you have followed the directions contained in Answer 20, the Court will consider everything that you have to say.

24. MAY I SPEAK AT THE HEARING?

That will be up to Judge Linares. You may ask the Court for permission to speak at the Final Approval Hearing. To do so, you must send a letter saying it is your "Notice of Intention to Appear in Schwartz v. Avis Rent A Car Sys., LLC, 11 Civ. 4032 and Klein v. Budget Rent A Car Sys., Inc., 12 Civ. 7300." You must include your name and address, as well as the name, address, and telephone number of any attorney who will appear at the Final Approval Hearing on your behalf. Your request must also indicate that you timely objected to the Settlement according to the directions contained in Answer 20.

Your letter must identify whether you are a member of the Avis Settlement Class, Budget Settlement Class, or both Settlement Classes. You must personally sign your letter and list the specific reasons why you wish to speak at the Final Approval Hearing, as well as any grounds for your objection.

You must file your Notice of Intention to Appear with the Clerk of the Court at the address listed in Answer 20 no later than May 5, 2016. Please include the phrase "Schwartz v. Avis Rent A Car Sys., LLC, 11 Civ. 4032 and Klein v. Budget Rent A Car Sys., Inc., 12 Civ. 7300" below the Court's address on the envelope containing your notice.
